

Family Promise Of Midland

6th Annual Clay Shoot

At

Windwalker Farms ■ Friday, June 23, 2017

Family Promise of Midland is a nonprofit organization whose mission is to end homelessness in Midland, Texas one family at a time. We currently have the support of 17 church congregations and we are growing! We need your help to continue to see homeless children and families reach self-sufficiency.

This is not a hand-out program, we are a hand up! We firmly believe if families are to reach self-sufficiency, they must be required to work and make a commitment. Since opening on February 14, 2011 Family Promise of Midland has served 72 homeless families. That includes 150 children who were homeless,

In December, 2013, in collaboration with the United Way of Midland, Family Promise opened its first transitional home to a family in crisis. It now operates a total of 3 duplexes to assist moving families toward permanent housing and stability in their lives.
